

1. What man was so important to the founding of America that he garnered the title “Father Of Our Country”? _____
Name three jobs he did in his life. A. _____
B. _____ C. _____
2. He commanded what army during the Revolution? _____
3. He lost more _____ than he won, but won our independence.
4. He presided over what important convention? _____
5. He was a citizen politician who became America’s first _____.
6. Washington was committed to creating a Republic based on liberty and _____
_____.
7. American’s need to remember Washington because he has an on going _____
_____. America we live in today is very much the America that George Washington helped to make.
8. Washington did something that Napoleon and other leaders did not do. Name it. _____
_____.
9. Washington was comfortable in his own skin, very authentic, what you saw is what you got. He didn’t have the blazing intellect like some of the other political figures of that era , he had what characteristics that made him beloved and called the “Father Of Our Country”? (Next page)

He trumped them in spades by the _____ he generated with the masses. He was a _____ not just a _____ .

10. The signers pledged their _____, their _____, their _____ . Had they been captured by the British they would have been _____ and _____.

11. Washington and his army took on a major fighting force with an amateur army and no _____ .

12. Which founder was considered to be the wisest? _____.

James Madison was considered to be the most _____.

The most intellectually sophisticated was _____.

The best read was _____ and the most intelligent was _____.

13. These founding fathers considered Washington to be “the _____ of us all.”

14. Washington was the master of _____. He listened while more insecure men would blather on.....

15. He did not have a huge _____, there was no narcissism in Washington which is unusual in great men.

16. Washington had _____, he was kind, he had the decency and the ability to be _____ to a soldier, hence making him a was a great _____. He led by _____.

17. When Washington came into a room, he had a _____ presence, almost intimidating because of his height.

18. Washington was a _____ in his own time.

19. In 1776 Common Sense was written by _____. It was _____.

20. General Washington was appointed as Commander of the _____.

21. Common Sense was not about the rights of Englishmen in the colonies, it was about establishing a new _____. The common sense approach was that we must _____ for a new nation.

22. General Washington was Commander of the Continental Army. The army was not well trained. They were a group of amateurs, derelicts, 3rd sons with no inheritance, some were _____ and 10% were _____.

23. In 1732 Washington was born in _____ county (Popes Creek) in the state of _____.

24. Even though the Washington's were prosperous, they were not considered to be in the top _____ of Virginia's wealthiest families. He did not have a huge _____ from his father.

25. As a teenager he undertakes unusual efforts at all aspects of his character. What book on self behavior did he read? _____.

26. Washington was an outdoors man. He loved swimming, _____, hunting and _____.

27. Washington is determined to elevate his social standing because he is convinced it seems, important _____ awaits him.

28. At age 17 he secures a job of _____. He gains a unique knowledge of the landscape which will serve him when he has to fight the _____.

29. In 1753 what Virginia Lt. Governor was ordered to protect the British in the Ohio basin? _____.

30. The Governor sends Washington to send a message to the French to _____ the area. Washington succeeded. Upon his return home everyone except Washington got very sick and many suffered _____.

31. At age 22 what does Washington do that launches in into being a celebrity? _____

32. His second trip to the Ohio valley ignites a global war. In 1754 Washington strikes the first blow in the _____ and Indian War.

In the French and Indian War, Washington learned to let the _____ fight for you.

He used what kind of warfare? _____ .

33. At the Battle of the Monongahela when General Braddock was mortally wounded, Washington stepped in to retreat. He had two _____ shot from beneath him and he had _____ musket balls pierce his coat.

34. Because of his narrow escapes from death over the years Washington believed he was _____ that he had been spared because he had a greater _____ . (Charmed meaning God was protecting him)

35. During a sick leave from the French and Indian War Washington has an encounter with who?
_____ .

36. When Abigail Adams met the 6 foot 2” General George Washington, she was quiet taken with him . She said “Citizen and _____ are agreeable blended in him. Modesty _____ every line of his face.”

37. George and Martha married in 1759, settling in to _____ .

38. During the years leading up to the war for Independence Washington establishes himself as a _____ in the Virginia House of _____ .

39. In 1772 the first known likeness of Washington was painted by artist _____ .

40. In 1775 Washington was given command of the Continental Army. He promised Martha he would be home in the _____ of 1775. When Martha saw the war would not be ending soon she went to where the General was stationed. Historian believe she spent _____ of the war with him.

41. The Boston Siege April 1775-March of 1776. Washington took command of how many militia men?

42. Before Washington arrived the British took what two places?

43. Washington sent _____ to bring back artillery taken from fort _____ . It took 3 months. Knox became one of Washington's closest confidants and friends.

44. Washington eventually drove British General _____ into retreating, making him a _____.

45. Riding with Washington was a personal attendant _____ . He was a slave, a personal servant, but a very close friend to Washington. He also rode out ahead of Washington _____ him during the war.

46. After the embarrassing defeat in Boston King _____ sent General William Howe's brother _____ along with _____ Ships to the colonies with _____ soldiers aboard. This was the largest naval attack of it's time.

47. On July 4, 1776 the 2nd Continental Congress Declaration signs the Declaration of Independence. On July _____ Washington standing on the island of Manhattan reads it to his troops with 200 British ships in the harbor. It was the call as to why we fight!

Stopped: 31:13